Borrow Books

Books in BCCLS: Request any non-reference item listed in BCCLS from the screen that shows the holdings. Your hometown library will get the book and call you when it comes in.

Books not in BCCLS: Place an interlibrary loan request with the reference librarian at your hometown library. Books and articles are available from libraries across the country. This service is free or low-cost. Information the librarian will need: author, title, publisher, and year.

Specialized Libraries

Mid-Continent: Use their catalog in print (GENEALOGY REF 026.9293 HEN) or online (www.mcpl.lib.mo.us/branch/ge/heartland). All titles in the catalog can be requested on interlibrary loan through your hometown library. Tell the librarian that this library loans for free and that the "ALA request form" is required and may be mailed, faxed or emailed.

Family History Centers: Use their catalog online (www.familysearch.org). Most books and records on microfilm can be ordered for a small fee at a Family History Center.

National Genealogical Society: The NGS library is deposited at the St. Louis County Public Library. Use webpac.slcl.org for their online catalog. Any circulating book can be requested by interlibrary loan (through your hometown library.) Tell the librarian that "ALA request forms" or email (scollections@slcl.org) may be used. See www.ngsgenealogy.org/bookloan.cfm and www.slcl.org/branches/hq/sc/ngs/ngscol-main.htm for more information.
