

Most Advently

RIDGEWOOD
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Celebrates

Jane Austen @ 250

Ridgewood Library's Celebration Continues this Fall!

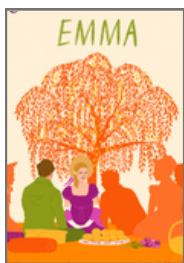

Info and registration, scan or visit:
[ridgewoodlibrary.org/
jane-austen-250](http://ridgewoodlibrary.org/jane-austen-250)

Ridgewood Library
125 N. Maple Ave, Ridgewood, NJ
(201) 670-5600x 2130

Questions? rpanjwani@ridgewoodlibrary.org

Books

Emma*

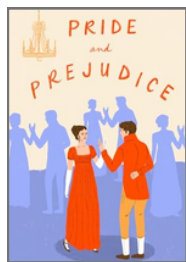

Thursday,
1 to 2 pm

November 13:

Chps. 1 to 27

December 11:

Chps. 28 to 55

Pride and Prejudice

Wednesday,

December 3

11 am to 12 pm

Crafts

Novels in Silhouette*

Capture a favorite Austen quote with your own silhouette!

Wednesday,

October 22

6:30 to 8:30 pm

Regency Paper Dolls*

Mary's Paper Dolls program takes on the fashion and history of Jane's Regency era.

Saturday,

October 25

11 am to 2 pm

Jane Austen @ 250 is sponsored by:

PARKER
GAIDIMAS
MEMORIAL GRANT

Podcasts

With host Roberta Panjwani

Episode 40: Jane Austen's
Bookshelf with Author & Rare
Books Dealer Rebecca Romney

Also available on YouTube

Episode 41: Jane Austen's Morality through Character

with author Brenda Cox & JASNA Austen Chat host Breckyn Wood

bendintheroad.org

or wherever you get your podcasts

Films

Jane Austen Wrecked My Life

(2024; PG; 1h 34m)

In French & English with subtitles

Friday, October 10, 1 to 2:35 pm

Pride & Prejudice

(2005; PG; 2h 8m; PG)

Celebrate Jane's actual birthday with a screening and discussion.

Tuesday, Dec 16, 1 to 3:30 pm

Programs

*Registration required

Staged Reading: *Manydown

Writer and actor
Sarah Rose Kearns
imagines one pivotal night in the lives of
Jane and her sister
Cassandra.

Saturday, Sept 20, 2 to 3 pm

English Country Dance*

Live music, regency dancers, and instruction with the North Jersey Country Dancers.
Sunday, November 2
2 to 4 pm

Jane Austen Spills the Tea*

Actor, producer, playwright Lena
Yasutake shares tea,
biscuits, and gossip
from Austen's life
and letters.

Monday, Nov 3, 7 to 8:15 pm

Jane Austen: Mindreader*

Eighteenth c. literature professor Stephanie Hershinow on Austen's use of "free indirect discourse."

Wednesday, Nov 5, 7 to 8 pm